

Coral Springs Museum of Art's Refund/Cancellation Policy – Classes and Events

Cancellation by Coral Springs Museum of Art – Class and/or Event

- The Coral Springs Museum of Art reserves the right to cancel a class/event due to low enrollment or other circumstances which would make the class/event non-viable.
- If Coral Springs Museum of Art cancels a class/event, registrants will be offered a full refund.
- Should circumstances arise that result in the postponement of a class/event, registrants will have the option to either receive a full refund or transfer registration to the same event at the new, future date.

Cancellation by Participant - Class

- Unless specifically stated on registration materials, the deadline to receive a refund for your registration is 5 business days before the class/event. Registration cancellations received prior to the deadline may be eligible to receive a refund less a $15 service fee.
- Cancellations received after the stated deadline will not be eligible for a refund.
- Refunds will not be available for registrants who choose not to attend a class/event.
- Cancellations will be accepted via phone, fax or e-mail, and must be received by the stated cancellation deadline.
- All refund requests must be made by the attendee or credit card holder.
- Refund requests must include the name of the attendee and/or transaction number.
- Refunds will be credited back to the original credit card used for payment.

Cancellation by Participant – Event

- Given the nature of fundraising events, the Coral Springs Museum of Art has an all sales are final/no refund policy. Fortunately, all event donations are tax deductible with proceeds benefiting the Museum so that the programs and offerings can continue to serve the community.

These above policies apply to all Coral Springs Museum of Art classes/events unless otherwise noted in the corresponding class/event materials. Please read all individual event information thoroughly.
