FEBRUARY GATHERING

Agenda

This month, on Thursday, February 8th, we are bringing back an often requested topic - resin pouring! Danny Dobbins and Daniel Listwan will each demonstrate and discuss their own processes in using related but different techniques using resin.

After the demonstration, the Museum's MIX Happy Hour event will be taking place in the galleries. This MIX is themed for Valentines Day with art stations, music, films, and a cash bar available to enjoy.

Join us for a discussion and demonstration of how to incorporate resin into your art, and then stay for some Valentines related fun! We hope to see you there!

GUILD GATHERINGS
