ART IN A BOX + TOURS

TOURS

Museum tours are crafted to offer an immersive visual arts encounter for every facet of the South Florida community, catering to school groups and individuals with diverse accessibility requirements.

Facilitated by our dedicated volunteer docents or museum educators, these guided tours animate the vibrant essence of our special exhibitions, both within the museum's galleries and in outdoor settings.

School Tours

Students and teachers will explore the exhibitions with a museum docent who will lead lively discussions and encourage participation in the show. Tours are appropriate for each group's grade, the level of ability, and the subject of interest. Tours last approximately 60 minutes.

Fees

- $6 per student with a minimum of 10 attendees
- 1 chaperone per 10 students is required and admitted at no cost: There is a fee of $6 per each additional chaperone.
- School groups requesting a group art project is additional $3.00/per person

Add-Ons

A group art project reflecting the art on display is available at an additional $3.00 per/person. Tours with an art activity will last 90 minutes.

TOURS

Tours are focused on current exhibitions and the outdoor sculpture garden. They integrate discussions, elements, and principles of design and games as a way of discovering and appreciating art.

Tours include guided discussions with docents with an upgrade option to include a hands-on project tailored to your group. We prepare each experience to target your group's age/grade level.

Sensory-based tours designed to accommodate the visually impaired are also available. Larger groups are divided amongst several docents to maximize access to presented information and allow for question-and-answer segments throughout the tours.

Museum exhibitions change quarterly.

ART-IN-A-BOX

Art-in-a-Box is an outreach program that we bring to you! It's perfect for classrooms, school art fairs, or special events. We provide artist-themed projects based on the styles, techniques, and materials used by popular artists of the 20th and 21st centuries.

What is it?

The museum creates projects based on a list you select from. Each Art-in-a-Box has 3-5 projects depending on the nature of the project individual or group. We develop a box that is perfect for your age group. It includes:

- Instructions
- Signage
- Majority of the supplies (some exceptions apply)
- Drop off
- During drop-off, Museum staff will go through the box & provide set-up directions and answer any questions about sample projects
- You will provide oversight and run your event

Add-Ons

For a fee, you may request an on-site museum guide.

Fees

$6-8 per student pending the number of students and projects.

To learn more, contact the Education and Public Programs Coordinator at 954-340-5007.

ART-IN-A-BOX

The CSMoA Art-In-A-Box outreach program brings ready-to-go art projects to your organization. Enjoy the ease of having thoughtfully considered creative projects prepared by the museum with clear directions, informational signs, example projects, and materials provided (*some materials supplied by receiving organization i.e. scissors.)

Mix and match your choice of our signature projects based on themes such as contemporary artists, nature, architecture, or a combination that best parallels your curriculum. Projects are adaptable to various ages/grade levels. They can easily enhance curriculum and support state standards. Projects may be selected from the list below:

- Basquiat Crowns
- Cubist Face Collage
- Van Gogh Card or Sunflowers
- Hokusai Great Wave Fan
- Dali Clock Necklace or Face Mask
- Lichtenstein Mask
- Eric Carle Crocodiles
