BUT FIRST...

A message from your new Museum liaison:

Hello, everyone!

It was so nice to meet many of you at last month's meeting, and congratulations on a beautiful exhibition! I am truly excited to connect with you all as Guild members and support your artistic endeavors. As I continue learning my role and its various responsibilities, I'll be very dedicated to championing artists, especially those in our own community (aka, the Guild!). My goal is to learn about you—what your goals are as a member of the Guild, what your aspirations are as an artist, and how we can get there together. This means I'll be looking to collect feedback from you all as Guild members to help me understand where we were, where we're at now, and where we can be in the future. I know some of you have been in the Guild for years, and others are relatively new, so this multigenerational knowledge will help us continue to evolve as a collective, and as artists.

Below, you'll find the link to a very brief questionnaire that will help me get an overall view of the CSAG and what can be discussed in the future. I look forward to reading all your feedback, and seeing you at the opening reception next week!

All my best,

Pamela Solares

Education and Public Programs Coordinator

Please fill out this brief questionnaire at your earliest convenience. It should take no more than five minutes—unless you've got a lot to say!

SEPTEMBER GATHERING

Agenda

As you know, our September gathering will also be the opening night of the Guild's exhibition, Pulse 2024! It will be a wonderful opportunity to see the creative journeys each of you have been on over the last year. This same night, you'll have the opportunity to sit in on Art and the Brain: Naked Neurons, a community conversation led by Kristen Beck and Lindsey Wuest, an artist and career teacher licensed in English 6-12 and Art K-12. 'Naked Neurons' is an interactive conversation and creative experience that will inspire attendees to analyze memories associated with the senses in a tactile way--assigning a deeper meaning to how our brains process memories. This conversation will be held from 6:30-7:30 pm.

Hope to see you all there!

GUILD GATHERINGS

The Guild meets the second Thursday of the month from 6:30 - 8:30pm. Check in at the front desk to find your meeting location for the evening; don't forget to sign in and bring your Membership Card.

Remember Guild Members and eligible for Museum Membership benefits so don't delay, take part today!

PULSE 2024

September '24 Guild Exhibition

On view: September 1 - 30, 2024, Museum Hall Gallery

Pulse 2024, a free exhibition hosted by the Coral Springs Art Guild, is a platform for members to give visitors a finger-on-the-pulse sense of how each artist's work has grown in 2024. Each participating member will have one work represented in the exhibition that has been created within the last 18 months. Together in conversation, this collection of work is a microcosm representing the contemporaneous creative journeys of our community.
